The woman who does her own baking should enjoy it immensely. Baking is really a pleasure and the source of much satisfaction if the housewife has much confidence in her results. But the excellency of her baking depends almost entirely on the quality of the ingredients which she uses.

OBITUARY.

Be still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

Died in Bay City at the home of her son Albert, on Sunday morning, January 24, 1915, Mrs. Lewis W. Secor, aged 85 years, 2 months and 27 days. Eliza Connel was born near Toronto, Ont., September 25th, 1829, and in 1844 was united in marriage to Lewis W. Secor. In the fall of 1881 the family moved to Michigan and located on what is known as the Joe Duval farm 1 mile north and 1 mile east of Yale where they resided for many years. Nine children were born to this union, all of whom survive. They are: Russell, of Yale; Henry, Toronto, Ont.; Albert, Bay City; John, Toronto; Norman, Detroit; Sarah T. Law, Toronto; Richard, Bay City; Fred, Ohio; Minnie Sutton, Curran, Alcona Co., Mich. The funeral services were held at Bay City Tuesday of this week and the body was brought to Yale Wednesday, interment being made in Elmwood cemetery in the family lot beside her husband who died in June last. The children have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

MINSTREL SHOW

To Be Given In Central Hall Friday Eve., February Fifth.
The Athletic Association of the high school came out of the foot-ball season considerably in debt.

For the benefit of the association the boys of the high school under the able leadership of Mr. Ryan, familiarly known as "Pat" will give on the above date, a minstrel show that is warranted to convulse with laughter the most solemn old grouch in town.

Come out and see "Tambo" and "Bones," the two funny men. Plenty of good singing under the management of Prof. Drouyor.

Secure your tickets Monday evening Feb. 1st, 8 o'clock, at Hennessy's.

Enjoyable Evening Spent

The Presbyterian church reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McColl on Friday evening last, was a very enjoyable and pleasant success. About seventy-five persons were present despite the inclement weather.

The program consisted of Scotch songs by Mrs. Etchells, Mrs. Cochrane, Louise Bright, Donna McLaughlin and Joseph Yull, and readings by Mrs. Yull, all receiving and meriting applause and encore.

Afterward an old-fashioned spelling match was indulged in, which was brought to an end by the serving of coffee and sandwiches.

These gatherings have become quite popular and deservedly so, among the Presbyterian people.

LANDS WINTER JOB

Free Employment Bureau Places Man on Farm Near Yale.

There was a very happy man at police headquarters Wednesday noon and he thanked Police Clerk McCutcheon in a warm and grateful manner. He had just secured a position on a farm at Yale and was on his way to his new place of employment. George Shearer, who resides on a farm near Yale, read in The Times-Herald of the employment bureau that was being conducted in connection with police headquarters for the unemployed men of the city and wrote a letter to Chief of Police Chambers to the effect that he had a place for a man on the farm which would last for three months and that there was $15 per month, free board and washing in the job. A man was picked from the list who was glad to get the position and he left for Yale on Wednesday.—Port Huron Times Herald, Jan. 21.

More About The Editor

It has ever been thus with the newspaper man. In one moment he is called upon to chronicle the glad festivities of a happy New Year and his next duty, perchance, is to write the obituary of a departed friend. Those in the possession of the joys of life can not be expected to fully appreciate the situation of the humble scribe whose mission it is, in the presence of the varying panorama of occurrences to laugh with those who laugh and weep with those who weep. The man of the pen must be as susceptible to sentiment as the most delicate thermometer. He must herald the glad when he is sad and the sad when he is glad. If the task he is performed to the universal liking of his critics the reason is more than likely to be attributed to a false cause. The real good, all-satisfying editor should be something more than human, but he just isn't, dear readers. He's just like you and you.

M. E. Church Notes

Two splendid sermons by our pastor last Sunday. Also a good attendance both morning and evening.

BETTES BEATS UP ROBBER

Fighting Parson Says He Got Money Back After A Tussle.

Rev. Sam G. Bettes, the stormy petrel of the religious path, and who is well known in this city, has added another exciting chapter to his career in his attempt to spread the gospel. Rev. Bettes is at present at West Port, Washington, and a short time ago held services at a small place named Ocoosa. While driving from Aberdeen to Ocoosa Rev. and Mrs. Bettes were held up by a highway robber according to a newspaper report. The robber was traveling in style turning the trick in an automobile which he was driving. The bandit first demanded $15 but all that Mr. Bettes could dig up was $4.50 which the robber took, promising that he would "see" them in Aberdeen. The following note concerning the robbery has been received from Mr. Bettes: "The paper forgot to mention that I knocked the stuffin' out of the fellow when he turned his head and then we got our money back and he got all that was coming to him."

$1.00 REWARD

In order to increase our crowds and reawaken interest in the movies we have devised the following plan:

At considerable cost and no end of trouble we have secured about 25 negatives of different people around town and have had slides made from each. Every night one of these slides will be thrown on the screen at end of the first show and if the person whose picture appears is in the theatre a reward of $1 will be given.

Not only are we doing this but we have arranged for better service than we have ever had before. Beginning next week the Princess will be open every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday night.—3 nights a week.

Loses Nine Cattle

Wm. P. Darling, one of our hard-working, thrifty farmers, had the misfortune during the past week of losing nine head of cattle, two milk cows, six steers and a two-year-old heifer. Indignation and other complications setting in was the cause of death. The loss will foot up approximately $500 or more, and is a hard blow to Mr. Darling when cattle are such a high price.
